WES MIN RC&D REPORT: Williamson reported that he attended the meeting February. Tom said that he would volunteer his time to attend the meetings, if he would receive reimbursement for his mileage. Board agreed that it was acted on at previous meeting to stop attending WesMin RC&D meetings.

PLANNING COMMISSION REPORT: Katterhagen reported that at the previous Planning Commission Meeting the ordinance was reviewed, in attempt to make the ordinance user friendly and in the near future, the County will be having public hearing for review of the ordinance.

STAFF REPORTS: (Attached) in addition, Russell added that Jim Fritz accepted a new position as Area Conservationist in Rochester and introduced Justin as the new Soil Conservationist. Sandy reported at the recent Area II Meeting, concern about future funding for WCTSA was discussed. Ed reported Jamey Rowe would be managing the Bryniarski and Varner site. Ed also noted that he attended the Day the Capitol and was unable to meet with Franson due to a conflict in her schedule. The DNR Officer Friese and Ed are scheduled for a site visit to an ag waste pit violation site as Friese’s supervisor is requesting more information before the violation is brought to court action. Ed also answered stock piling and set back questions. Amy added she attended the local irrigators meeting that included hands-on demos. Sarah added that she will be cross-training staff before maternity leave.

Ed Uhlenkamp was appointed by the Board of Supervisors to apply for MDA Agriculture Water Quality Certification advisory committee. He was advised to attain letters of support for State Association, County Board, SWCD Board of Supervisors, MPCA (John Pokorney) and any other agencies he works closely with.

2013-2014 CWF Feedlot Assistance Grant Agreement: Motion by Katterhagen, seconded by Buchholz to accept 2013-2014 CWF Feedlot Assistance Grant Agreement.
